

Jobs Act: the keyword is the class struggle of the exploited!

A House of appointed, controlled by the "nation party" organic to big capital, has approved the Jobs Act, which means greater exploitation, insecurity, destruction of the rights and dignity of workers, such as Article 18.

The hypocritical dissent of a group of deputies does not save face of the Democratic Party and has as only political perspective the survival of the bankruptcy reformism. However, those who see in this vote a strengthening of the Renzi government, who goes on with necessary steps in its reactionary project, are mistaken. On the contrary, it is a proof of increasing detachment from its social base - proved even in the recent regional elections – and of authoritarian entrenchment, which will bring Renzi and his neoliberal policy to defeat. The key-word now is the class struggle of the exploited, which in recent months has seen a dynamic growth. The proletariat, the people of the 1000 Euros per month - which is opposed to the gentlemen from dinners of 1000 Euros for dinner, will express, to the sound of strikes and street demonstrations, his no confidence to the Renzi government. On December 12 there is the general strike called by the leaders of the CGIL and UIL, that proclaiming it in delay and on harmless contents, revealed their intention to block the continuity of the struggles, their process of radicalization and political unification. The strikes, just to show that you do something are not enough! It is necessary to reach the strike of December 12 with a crescendo of mobilizations, developing the proletarian united front on slogans and clear, anti-capitalist aims. It will be, must be a real struggle day to drop the Renzi government, before he lead us to complete ruin. The rise of mass struggle leads to the general and continued political strike, to inflict severe blows to the financial oligarchy and its government. Fighting against the bourgeois governments, for a working government who opens the road to socialism, means to have the essential tool to direct the process of emancipation of exploited: the Communist Party of the proletariat. It's time the more conscious and combative workers break sharply and permanently with the reformism and political, union opportunism, to join with the Marxist-Leninists to accomplish resolute steps just in this direction. Let us unite and get organized!
